Rev. Dr. O. Ellyson, a Baptist minister, known throughout Virginia, Washington, D. C., and elsewhere, and now pastor of Oakland Baptist church, in this county, created no little surprise by inviting other denominations to partiake of the Lord's Supper in his church and with his membership. His invitation to "all Christians" was couched in eloquent, yet humble, tender, and impressive language.

nans" was couched in eloquent, yet hum-ble, tender, and impressive language, which awakened deep interest and fra-ternal feeling in the congregation, and the pedo-Baptists present—mainly Epis-copalians—promptly accepted the invita-tion, and for the first time in this sec-tion communed with their Baptist breth-ren. This new departure has created very general comment, and it is said on good authority that a majority of the "Oak-land" membership approved their pastor's "surprising course."
